

Back by popular demand! Join SV@Home for Affordable Housing Month 2021 in Santa Clara County! Previously known as Affordable Housing Week, our signature annual program has grown to a month-long series of public awareness and engagement events that highlight housing challenges and solutions, including those relating to the pandemic. Together with our regional partners, we will engage dozens of organizations and thousands of viewers throughout the County at virtual events, activities for all ages, and invigorating conversations. Home has taken on a whole new meaning during these times and there has never been a more critical time to participate. We appreciate your support!
